NOTICE PURSUANT TO SECTION 17924 OF THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE

Within 30 days after filing with the County Clerk, fictitious business name statement must be published in a newspaper once a week for four successive weeks and an affidavit of publication filed with the County Clerk within 30 days after publication has been completed. The statement should be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the principal place of business is to be conducted (Section 17917 Business and Professions Code).

Any person who executes, files, or publishes any statement under Chapter 5 (Commencing with section 17900) of Part 3 Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, knowing that such a statement is false, in whole or in part, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollar ($500). (Section 17930 Business and Professions Code).

NOTE: This statement filed under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17900) of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code need not be published if it is being filed because a prior statement has expired provided the refiling is filed within 40 days of the date the statement expired under subdivision (a) of Section 17920 of the business and Professions Code unless there has been a change in the information required in the expired statement (Section 17917c Business and Professions Code).

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

A fictitious business name statement may be executed, filed and published by the trustee in bankruptcy, guardian, conservator, executor, administrator, an assignee or purchaser or any time after bankruptcy, the incompetence or death of any individual or partner or the assignment or sale of the business where a failure to comply with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17900), Part 3 of division 7 of the Business and Professions Code would otherwise preclude the maintenance of an action to recover any sums due to the bankrupt, incompetence, deceased person, the partnership of which he was a member of the assignee or purchaser (Section 17919 Business and Professions Code).

HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORM

DEFINITIONS OF A FICTITIOUS FIRM NAME

For Individuals: A name that does not include the surname of the individual. A name that suggests existence of additional owner (such as "Company," "& Company," "Sons," "& Associates," "Brothers," but not the words that merely describe the business being conducted).

For Partnerships: or other associations of persons. A name that does not include the surname of each general partner or name that suggests existence of additional owners (such as "Company," "Brothers," etc.) in the case of an unincorporated association other than a partnership, a "Z" general partner" means a person whose liability in the business is substantially the same as a general partner.

For Corporations: A name not stated in the articles of incorporation.

Organizations Not Included: Non-profit corporations or associations such as churches, labor unions, fraternal and charitable organizations, non-profit hospitals, etc., and real estate investment trusts with permits under Section 23002 of the Government Code which have statements on file designating agent for service of process.

PUBLICATION

Within 30 days after the statement is filed, the registrant will publish it in a newspaper of general circulation in the county and the business area in which the principal place of business is located. The newspaper will publish the Fictitious Name Statement once a week for four consecutive weeks. Within 30 days of the completion of the publication an affidavit must be filed with the Fresno County Clerk.

EXPIRATION

The fictitious Name Statement will expire five years after the date of filing the original application. In order to continue reserving the Business Name a new statement must be filed before the expiration date. The fee for renewing a Fictitious Name Statement is the same as for filing a new Fictitious Name Statement. Renewing a statement does not require publication if there are not changes from the previous application. A statement also expires when it is abandoned.

ABANDONMENTS

A person who has filed a statement may, upon ceasing to transact business in this state under that Fictitious name, file a STATEMENT OF ABANDONMENT, publish same and file an affidavit of publication with the County Clerk. Forms are available at the County Clerk's office. The statement shall be executed in the same manner as a fictitious business name statement and shall be filed with the County Clerk of the county in which the person has filed his fictitious business name statement.

WITHDRAWAL OF GENERAL PARTNER

A general partner of a partnership having a statement on file may file a STATEMENT OF WITHDRAWAL OF PARTNERSHIP, publish and file an affidavit of publication with the County Clerk. This may be done as long as it does not change the status of the original filing. Publication is not required if dissolution of the partnership has been published pursuant to the Corporation Code. Forms are available at the County Clerk's office.

FEES

The fee for filing a new Fictitious Name Statement or filing a Renewal is $35.00 for the first business name + one owner; $7.00 for each additional business name or partner. Filing a Statement of Abandonment or a Withdrawal of Partnership is $17.00. We will provide a search for Fictitious Business Name statements received through the mail for a fee of $5.00 per business name filed (along with the filing fee of $35.00 for one business name and one owner and $7.00 for each additional business name or owner).

DOES IT MATTER WHETHER ANOTHER BUSINESS HAS THE SAME NAME?

No. It is irreverent to filing of the Fictitious Business name statement. However, there could be legal problems if you duplicate a name that has been filed.
